Numb. 7612.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 21. to Saturday June 25 1737.

Petersbourg, May 21, O. S.

THE last Advices from Felt Marshal Count Munich were dated the 4th Instant, by which this Court is acquainted, that he had received a Letter from the Turkish Plenipotentiaries, by which they informed him that they were arrived on the Borders, and desired a Guard to convoy them to Cudak; that he had answered this Letter, and advised them not to go to Cudak, but to Bialazerkoff, which is a neutral Place belonging to the Republick of Poland: But it does not appear that this Court is yet informed whether the Turkish Plenipotentiaries are gone to Bialazerkoff, or whether they wait on the Frontiers for new Orders from the Grand Vizier before they follow Count Munich's Advice. That Count writes likewise, that all the Troops under his Command were advanced to the Nieper near Perevolotchna, and encamped about eight Miles from thence, where they waited for some Artillery from Breansky, and as soon as that is arrived it is thought he will proceed on his March to besiege Oczakow. By this Time it is thought the Czarina's Plenipotentiaries, Baron Shaphiroff, and M. Neplueff, are very near Kiow, if not arrived there: M. Volenski being Sick is still here, but it is said he designs to set out this Evening.

Berlin, June 22, N. S. This Day at Noon his Prussian Majesty received an Account by Express, that the States of Courland having assembled on the 11th Instant, chose on the 13th Count Biron, the Czarina's Grand Chambellan, for their Duke.

Hague, June 28, N. S. M. Visvliet, the Fiscal of the Admiralty of Zealand, who was named to be the third Commissary of this State for the Tariff to be settled with the Low Countries, is since dead; upon which Occasion it has been thought proper by their High Mightinesses, to have a new Election of three Commissaries; that Zealand shall name another Commissary in their Fiscal's Room; that Holland shall have the Nomination of another, and the States General of the third; and it is not doubted but M. Hop, and M. Assendelst, first intended for that Commission, will be confirmed. The States General have likewise named three Deputies to go to Embden, in order to contribute, by all sort of amicable Means, to the Success of the Agreement now on foot between the Magistrates of that Town, and the Prince of Oost Frise. The States of Holland who separated on the 22d Instant, are summoned to re-assemble here next Wednesday Seven-night. Sixteen Ships of the East India Fleet are arrived in the respective Ports of these Provinces, and the rest are daily expected.

St. James's, June 25.

This Day the four Troops of Horse Guards, and the two Troops of Horse Grenadier Guards, passed in Review before his Majesty in Hyde Park, and made a very fine Appearance. After which their Majesties, with his Royal Highness the Duke, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, went to Richmond to reside there for some Time.

Whitehall, June 25.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint John Lord Monson (in the room of Benjamin Earl of Fitzwalter) Thomas Pelham, Martin Bladen, Edward Ashe, and James Brudenell, Esqrs. Sir Archer Crofts, Bart. Richard Plummer, Esq; and Robert Herbert, Esq; (in the Room of Sir Orlando Bridgman) to be his Majesty's Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

His Majesty has also been pleased to constitute and appoint John Duke of Montagu to be Captain and Colonel of the First Troop of Horse Guards, in the Room of John Earl of Westmorland; And also to constitute and appoint Francis Earl of Effingham to be Captain and Colonel of the Second Troop of Horse Grenadier Guards, in the Room of Brigadier General Berkeley, deceased.

The King has been pleased to constitute Sir William Chapple, Kt. one of his Majesty's Serjeant at Law, one of the Justices of the Court of King's Bench, in the Room of Sir William Lee, Kt. now Lord Chief Justice of the said Court.

His Majesty has likewise been pleased to appoint Thomas Fipon, Esq; to be Keeper of his Majesty's Game in the Island of Jersey.

Whereas it has been repreſented to the King, That Richard Turpin did, on Wedneſday the Fourth Day of May laſt, barbarouſly murder Thomas Morris, Servant to Henry Tomſon, one of the Keepers of Epping Foreſt; and that the ſaid Richard Turpin hath, at divers Times, committed ſeveral notorious Felonies and Robberies in and near the ſaid Foreſt, and other Places near the Cities of London and Weſtminſter; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing the ſaid Richard Turpin to Juſtice, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices of the ſaid Richard Turpin, who ſhall diſcover him, ſo that he may be apprehended and convicted of any of the ſaid Offences. And as a further Encouragement, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover the ſaid Criminal, ſo as he may be apprehended and convicted as aforeſaid, to be paid upon ſuch Conviction, over and above all other Rewards to which the ſaid Perſon or Perſons may otherwiſe be entituled.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The ſaid Richard Turpin was born at Thackſted, in the County of Eſſex, is about Thirty Years of Age, by Trade a Butcher, about Five Feet Nine Inches high, of a brown Complexion, very much marked with the Small Pox, his Cheek bones broad, his Face thinner towards the Bottom, his Viſage ſhort, pretty upright, and broad about the Shoulders.

Whitehall, June 13, 1737.

Whereas an anonymous Letter was lately received by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornbury, directed to him at the Earl of Clarendine's Houſe in St. James's Square, London, (which Letter is ſuppoſed to have been written by Perſons concerned in ſtealing Deer in his Majeſty's Foreſt of Whichwood, in the County of Oxford) threatning to deſtroy the Houſes and Stables of the ſaid Lord Cornbury, and alſo to take away his Life, if he ſhould not comply with what is therein deſired: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in the writing or ſending the abovementioned Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and alſo a Reward of Fifty Pounds to ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, payable upon the Conviction of ſuch Offender or Offenders. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

June 24, 1737.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners for Inquiring into the Officers of the Courts of Juſtice throughout England and Wales their Service and Fees, have appointed to meet on Thurſday the 30th Day of this Inſtant ſtant June, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, at the Council-chamber Lincoln's Inn, to take into Conſideration the Report lately made to their Lordſhips from the Sub-Commiſſioners for inquiring into the Officers their Service and Fees of the Court of Chancery, and the Jury's Preſentment under them, as far as relates to the Officers of Examiners and Maſters of the ſaid Court.

Joſ. Sharpe, Secr.

Whereas by an Act paſſed the laſt Seſſions of Parliament, it is enacted, that from and after the 24th Day of June, 1737, there ſhall be paid for the Uſe of his Majeſty, &c. for every Barrel of Liquor made or to be made within the Kingdom of Great Britain for Sale, by Infuſion, Fermentation, or otherwiſe from foreign Fruit, or Sugar, or from Britiſh Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials whatſoever, commonly called Sweets, or called or diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Made Wines, for which no Duty hath been already paid, or ſhall be paid on or before the ſaid 24th Day of June, the Sum of Twelve Shillings to be paid by the Maker thereof, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity. That from and after the ſaid 24th Day of June, every Maker of the Liquors aforeſaid, called Sweets or Made Wines, for Sale, ſhall, before he, ſhe, or they begin to make ſuch Sweets or Wines, or any of them, give Notice in Writing at the next Office of Exciſe, of his, her, or their Name and Place of Abode, and of all and every the Rooms and Places made Uſe of by him, her, or them for Making or Keeping of Sweets or Made Wines, on Pain of forfeiting for every Room or Place ſo made uſe of as aforeſaid, without Notice as aforeſaid, the Sum of Twenty Pounds. That all Laws heretofore made in relation to the Duties upon Sweets, ſhall be exerciſed, &c. for ſecuring, &c. the Duty granted by this Act, and for puniſhing Frauds relating thereto: That no Perſon ſhall Sell ſuch Made Wines to be drank in his, her or their Houſe or Houſes, unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons be firſt Licenſed by two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace. That no Licence ſhall be granted to any Perſon for Selling by Retail any Made Wines whatſoever, except to ſuch Perſons only who ſhall keep publick Victualling Houſes, Inns, Coffee-Houſes or Ale Houſes. That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to charge with any Duty, ſuch Wine as the Owners or Occupiers of Britiſh Vineyards ſhall make from the Juice of Britiſh Grapes only growing thereon. It is therefore thought proper to give this publick Notice of the ſaid Law, that all Perſons concerned may act in conformity thereto.

Wilts ſſ. The General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace of our Lord the King, held at Devizes in and for the ſaid County, on Tueſday the 19th Day of April, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. before John Cooper, John Eyles, John Phipps, Thomas Phipps, George Hungerford, Edward Clerk, Nathaniel Houlton, Thomas Batſon, George Willoughby, Stephen Street, Edward Naiſh, Eſqrs. and others their Fellows Juſtices of the ſaid King, aſſigned to keep the Peace of the ſaid King in the ſaid County, and alſo to hear and determine divers Felonies, Treſpaſſes, and other Miſdemeanors done and committed in the ſaid County.

TO prevent Delays, and to regulate the Practice of this Court in adjourned Appeals, this Court doth order, That for the future all adjourned Appeals be proceeded on the Morning of the ſecond Day of the Quarter Seſſions for this County; and in caſe the Parties in ſuch Adjourned Appeals be not then ready and prepared to have the ſame heard and determined, then the Parties ſo unprepared ſhall pay unto the other of the ſaid Parties in ſuch Appeal who are prepared, ſuch Coſts as this Court ſhall award; and the Order or Orders appealed againſt ſhall be confirmed or quaſhed by this Court in regard to the Parties ſo delaying and being unprepared, unleſs ſpecial Cauſe be ſhewn to this Court to the contrary. And to the Intent all Parties may have due Notice of this Order, the Clerk of the Peace for this County is hereby ordered to cauſe this Order to be publiſhed in ſome publick News Papers.

By the Court. HAWKES.
